

Learn For Life Policies and Procedures

The Learn for Life program was founded in 2016 in order to provide educational opportunities to diverse audiences while promoting Assumption University's mission. The program offers courses on a range of subjects from religion and theology to history and politics to health and ethics. The courses are designed for those interested in learning for the sake of learning.

Courses

The Learn for Life courses are offered between September and June annually. The courses typically take place once per week over a three-week period.

Instructors

The courses are taught by qualified instructors with graduate-level credentials.

Class Size

In order for a class to proceed, it is required that a minimum of six students enroll.

Certificates

At the end of each course, students will be presented with a certificate of completion signed by the instructor and the interim principal of Assumption University.

Auditing

Given that Learn for Life courses are not for credit, auditing is not possible.

Registration

Students must register for Learn for Life courses at least one week prior to the start date of each course. Early registration is welcome and encouraged.

Payment

Payment in full must be received by Assumption University one week prior to the start of each course. Please note that payment will not be accepted on the first day of class.

Refunds

Refunds can only be requested before the course has begun. After the course has begun, no refunds will be issued. For all refunds, a $20.00 administrative fee will be charged.
